Weimar geistvoll

Bicycle Tour

The " little great" town of Weimar can also be discovered on a relaxing bicycle tour lasting about three hours (Bubo Vimariae can supply you with adequate bicycles). We cycle through downtown (Altstadt), through the Park an der Ilm, reach the picturesque suburb and make a stop at Henry van de Velde's home, "Hohe Pappeln". As we continue, we find the birthplace of the "Bauhaus", we pass the home of Franz Lizst and finally reach Frauenplan. Since we are standing in front of the Goethehaus we get the chance to listen to stories about our German Duke of Poetry, Johann Wolfgang v. Goethe.
